

Unit title	Year	Background notes
Why are prayer and the mosque important to Muslims?	5	This unit encourages pupils to explore the idea of prayer in general as well as looking at the importance of prayer/worship in Islam. (The word which Muslims use for this activity can be translated as either prayer or worship.) Welcoming a range of Muslim visitors to the classroom (including pupils) to talk about their beliefs will add to the pupils' understanding of what prayer means to individual Muslims. Redbridge RE has very positive relationships with local mosques and religious leaders, which could lead to stimulating visits. Please note The activities below are meant only as a guide; teachers should feel free to adapt & develop activities to meet the needs of their individual classes. The key questions & associated activities may need to be spread over a number of sessions to ensure adequate coverage of the learning outcomes.

What helps Muslims to pray?	Lifestyle Prayer mat Ka'bah Makkah	I can describe some of the things that Muslims do when praying and explain why they do them (Level 3) I can use religious words to describe some of the different ways in which Muslims show their beliefs (Level 3)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Look at a collection of Muslim religious artefacts, such as a prayer mat, prayer beads (tasbeeh), compass showing the qibla, topee, headscarf and share knowledge of what they are and how they might be used Carefully observe the prayer mat and share what you can see eg image of a mosque, the Ka'bah, the alcove representing the direction of Makkah, Arabesque patterns around the edge. Discuss how a prayer mat is used and how a qibla compass might be used to find the direction of Makkah. Look at some examples of Islamic patterns and help children to research Islamic art eg the belief that only God creates life and that Muslims traditionally do not represent living forms in art. Children use their learning to design a prayer mat that uses some of the special features discussed. Individually, children to write a guide about prayer in Islam.
